

Usgaonkar, Shri Achyut Kashinath Sinai

Usgaonkar, Shri Achyut Kashinath Sinai, M.G. (Pale); s. of Shri Kashinath Sinai Usgaonkar; b. at Khanapur on September 15, 1928; m. to Manikabai; ed. Peoples High School, Panaji; Knows Marathi, Konkani, Hindi, English and Portuguese.

Member of the First Legislative Assembly (1964-66); elected as Deputy Speaker of the First Legislative Assembly on 15-1-1964 and resigned on 28-3-1964 as Dy. Speaker ; re-elected to the Second Legislative Assembly in March, 1967; actively participated along with the members of the Indian Consulate in Liberation Movement; underground worker; Vice Chairman of State Advisory Board National Savings; Deputy Minister, Finance, Planning and Development from April, 1967 to October 1967 and thereafter Minister of State for Planning, Development, Animal Husbandry, Irrigation, Social Welfare, Cooperation, Panchayats and Small Savings; Member, Rules Committee 1971-72.

Hobbies: Reading.

Special Interest: Development of rural sector (Agriculture), mining and gardening.

Recreation: Drama, Classical music, etc.

Permanent Address: Usgao, Ponda, Goa.
